Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 6-8 are allowed.
2. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

With regard to claim 6, the prior art of record fails to anticipate or make obvious a wireless network for assigning time slots comprising: a central station "determining a transmission order according to a decreasing number of the receiving terminals such that a transmitting transmits first if said transmitting terminal intends to transmit the largest number of the receiving terminals; the central station sorting the receiving terminal that receive the packets from [a] first subset of the transmitting terminals into a first group which includes the receiving terminals that have been used as the transmitting terminals and into a second group which includes the remaining of the receiving terminals; the central station determining a receiving order in the first and second groups in accordance with the transmission order; the central station selecting the receiving terminal of the second group prior to the first group."
